MEMO ENDORSED

RE: United States v. Andrei Tyurin
15-Cr-333

Dear Judge Swain:

Mr. Tyurin's sentencing is currently scheduled for November 5, 2020. With the consent of the government, I respectfully request an adjournment of sentencing of two weeks. The logistical difficulties presented by the COVID-19 crisis have delayed my ability to effectively communicate with my client around issues related to sentencing, such as giving him adequate time to review any sentencing submissions to be filed on his behalf. I also await additional materials from his family in Russia that may be relevant to sentencing.

Accordingly, I respectfully request an adjournment of sentencing to November 19, 2020.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

/s/

Florian Miedel
Counsel for Andrei Tyurin

AUSA Eun Young Choi (email)

The sentencing is adjourned to November 17, 2020, at 9:00 a.m. and the related deadlines are modified accordingly, except that counsel for Mr. Tyurin may submit his sentencing submission on or before November 5, 2020. The Court will seek to arrange a video sentencing, at defendant's request, unless counsel promptly informs Chambers that Mr. Tyurin wishes to proceed in person. The precise date, time and modality of the proceeding cannot be confirmed until early November; counsel are requested to keep their calendars clear for the entire morning of November 17, 2020, until further notice. DE# 135 resolved.

SO ORDERED.
